Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Human Resource Management	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Instructional Design for HR Training Course is a strategic capability that transforms traditional training into high-impact, data-driven, and performance-oriented learning experiences. In today’s digital workplace, HR professionals must leverage learning analytics, AI-powered learning, competency mapping, workforce upskilling, and performance consulting to design training that aligns with business goals. This course equips HR leaders and L&D professionals with the tools to create engaging, scalable, measurable, and ROI-focused learning solutions using modern frameworks such as ADDIE, Agile Learning Design, and Design Thinking.

As organizations accelerate digital transformation, HR teams are expected to deliver personalized learning journeys, blended learning ecosystems, microlearning strategies, and learning experience platforms (LXP) that drive employee engagement and retention. This program integrates instructional strategy, adult learning theory, digital content creation, eLearning development, and impact measurement to enable HR professionals to become strategic business partners. Participants will gain hands-on exposure to real-world case studies, practical tools, and innovative methodologies that redefine corporate training effectiveness.
