

Labour Compliance Auditing Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today's rapidly evolving regulatory environment, Labour Compliance Auditing has become a critical function for organizations seeking to ensure legal compliance, ethical workforce management, ESG alignment, and corporate governance excellence. With increasing global focus on labor rights, workplace safety, fair wages, and statutory compliance, organizations must proactively implement robust auditing systems to mitigate risks, avoid penalties, and strengthen employer brand reputation. Labour Compliance Auditing Training Course is designed to equip participants with advanced knowledge of labor law frameworks, compliance monitoring systems, audit reporting techniques, and risk-based inspection methodologies.

The course provides a comprehensive understanding of HR compliance auditing, statutory labor regulations, occupational health & safety (OHS), payroll compliance, and workforce governance standards. Participants will learn how to conduct effective audits aligned with international benchmarks such as ILO standards, ISO compliance frameworks, ESG reporting requirements, and internal control systems. By integrating practical case studies, real-world compliance failures, and industry best practices, this program ensures professionals can confidently identify gaps, implement corrective actions, and support organizational compliance maturity.
