

Workplace Complaint Handling Procedures Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Workplace disputes, grievances, and complaints are among the most critical challenges affecting organizational productivity, employee morale, and legal compliance. In today's dynamic work environment, organizations must adopt effective workplace complaint handling procedures, HR compliance frameworks, employee relations strategies, and conflict resolution systems to ensure fairness, transparency, and accountability. Workplace Complaint Handling Procedures Training Course is designed to equip participants with modern, structured, and legally compliant approaches to managing workplace complaints while fostering a positive organizational culture.

With increasing focus on employee engagement, psychological safety, diversity and inclusion (D&I), workplace ethics, and corporate governance, organizations can no longer afford inconsistent or poorly managed grievance systems. This program provides practical tools, real-world case studies, and standardized procedures aligned with global HR best practices to ensure complaints are handled professionally, confidentially, and in compliance with labor laws, workplace policies, and HR dispute resolution frameworks
